Procedure for claiming pension

Staff Correspondent

Mysore district has many family members of Central Government pensioners who may be unaware or ignorant of how to claim their right to family pension after the demise of their Central Government pensioner. The Pension Payment Order (PPO) contains details of the next of kin who is eligible to receive family pension. Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions Department of Pension and Pensioners Welfare, clarified and reiterated the procedure for claiming family pension by eligible members of the family. It has listed out documents to be submitted by claimants.

Form 14 along with PPO, death certificate and other supporting documents for claiming family pension. The memorandum may be accessed at the following link: <http://circulars.nic.in>
